

We are looking for Teaching Artists for summer classes

Foluké Cultural Arts Center is Looking for a Teaching Artist for summer classes. Classes will be taught through multiple school partnerships.

We are looking for all art areas such as dance, music, visual arts, film/photography and theater.

Foluké Cultural Arts is dedicated to empowering youth through art, arts education, and culture with inner-city kids.

Classes will be held at Friendly Inn, various venues in the Central Neighborhood, and the Greater Cleveland Area.

Summer sessions are generally 4-6 weeks between 10am-4pm.

Qualifications

- Leadership Skills
- Dependability
- Positivity
- Creativity
- Problem Solving
- Active listening & Communication
- Some experience formulating and implementing a curriculum

We would love to welcome new members to the organization as we grow together.

Interested?

Email Nicole@folukearts.org or call 216-432-3772

